- Postdoc fellowships in Denmark: Salary for postdocs in Denmark (employed at Danish research institutions).
- Postdoctoral fellowship at the Danish Institute in Athens: A three-year postdoc period at the Danish Academy in Athens (research within archaeology, history, languages, literature, visual art, architecture and cultural traditions in Greece and the Mediterranean countries).
- Crown Prince Frederik Distinguished Postdoctoral Fellowship at the University of Greenland or the Greenland Institute of Natural Resources: two-year postdoctoral fellowship to carry out on research on subjects related to Greenland.
- HM Queen Margrethe II Distinguished Research Project on the Danish-Icelandic reception of Nordic antiquity. Two two-year postdoctoral fellowships on the Danish-Icelandic reception of Nordic antiquity from the Renaissance to national romanticism and modernism hosted at the Museum of National History at Frederiksborg Castle in collaboration with the National Museum of Iceland and the University of Iceland.
- The Carlsberg Foundation's Distinguished Fellowships: One-to-three year fellowships for outstanding newly appointed associate professors or tenure track assistant professors with international experience for the establishment of an independent research group and the creation of national/international networks. Applicants must not be more than two years into his/her tenured position. Amount: max. DKK 4,500,000.
- Semper Ardens Monographs: One-year grants for leading, established researchers (tenured senior researchers) with a project aiming at the publication of a pioneering monograph or doctoral dissertation.
- Publications relating to projects supported by the Carlsberg Foundation.
- Field trips/Research stays at Foreign Institutions: support for field expeditions and research stays abroad.
- Grants for arranging conferences (max. DKK 60,000).
- Expression of interest: Carlsberg Foundation 'Semper Ardens' Research Projects: Small number of grants for visionary 'Semper Ardens' projects aimed at cross-scientific breakthroughs and/or high risk/high gain research. Emphasis will be put on projects where the applicants venture into new scientific territory.

The electronic application system is available on the Carlsberg Foundation's homepage. The full call for proposals and guidelines for applicants are available at <http://www.carlsbergfondet.dk/en>

For all applicants

If you want to apply for a grant hosted by the School of Culture and Society, please send an email to the school's research consultant, Signe Engelbreth Larsen (saelarsen@cas.au.dk) and the relevant research programme director no later than Friday 31 August, stating the project title, the grant, that you are applying for, and the relevant research programme.

Internal Review – Semper Ardens Research Projects, Distinguished Fellowships and postdocs

Before final submission applications must be sent to a member of the school's interdisciplinary review panel with a view to improve the project description. Consequently, the research consultant must receive your provisional project description no later than Wednesday 12 September at 09:00. Applicants will receive comments no later than Wednesday 19 September. (Applicants whose project descriptions were subjected to review in 2017 are exempted from the process.)

Regarding support from the Research Support Office

Applicants for the Distinguished fellowships or the Semper Ardens instrument who request assistance (budget and/or comments on proposal) from the Research Support Office must send budget information and a 1st draft of the proposal to the ARTS team at the Research Support Office no later than Friday 31 August. Applicants who request assistance after this deadline will be referred to the project finance controllers who will assist the applicants with the budgets only. Budget information template is attached.

Specially for postdoc-applicants

Please note that the Research Support Office doesn't offer assistance with the postdoc-applications. We refer to the project finance administrators who will provide support in relation to the budgets. Please get in touch with Jesper Skovmøller (jesper.skovmoeller@au.dk) or Mia Just (mia.just@au.dk). The deadline for assistance is Wednesday 10 September 2018.

Regarding the housing commitment

In connection with the preparation of the mandatory housing commitment the research consultant must receive an email no later than Monday 17 September (and preferably before) including the final title of the project, a brief summary description of the project (max. three-five lines), and a few lines about the research environments at CAS which will be particularly relevant for the project. The information must be sent to saelarsen@cas.au.dk

Projects involving PhD students:

When specific PhD students are involved in major projects, the main applicant must gain the approval of the relevant head of PhD programme as quickly as possible, confirming that it will be possible to register the student concerned as a PhD student if the applicant receives funding. In order to gain this approval, the candidate's CV, exam/degree certificates, documentation for English language qualifications, and a project outline for the part of the project that the PhD student is to carry out must be sent to the relevant head of PhD programme: Charlotte Appel (chap@cas.au.dk), Line Dalsgård (ald@cas.au.dk), or Ulla Schmidt (teous@cas.au.dk) no later than 31 August 2018. If the applicant is approved, the main applicant will receive a confirmation document from the head of the graduate school, Anne Marie Pahuus. Please note that the Graduate School offers to co-finance one year of the PhD-student's salary.
