

CAS PROCESS FOR APPLICANTS TO THE CARLSBERG FOUNDATION

DEADLINE 1 OCTOBER 2021 AT 16:00

The Carlsberg Foundation supports excellent basic scientific research at a high international level within the humanities, natural sciences and social sciences. This research is carried out by Danish and international researchers with links to Danish research. In the autumn of 2021, grant applications are invited for:

- Internationalisation fellowships*: Travel grants for long-term research periods (two-years) at international elite universities. Amount: DKK 350,000 per annum (scholars travelling without children), DKK 425,000 per annum (scholars accompanied by children).
- Carlsberg Visiting Fellowships at University of Oxford*: Two-year postdoctoral visiting fellowships at Oxford University. Amount: DKK 350,000 per annum (scholars travelling without children), DKK 425,000 per annum (scholars accompanied by children).
- Carlsberg Foundation Reintegration Fellowships: Two-year postdoctoral fellowships at Danish research institutions for postdoctoral fellows subsequent to an Internationalisation Fellowship from the Carlsberg Foundation or an otherwise funded research stay abroad.
- Carlsberg Foundation Young Researcher Fellowships: Three-year grants for outstanding newly appointed associate professors to establish an independent research group or research environment, including the acquisition of research infrastructure (equipment, register data, etc.) and the formation of national/international networks. At the time of application, the applicant cannot be more than two years into his/her position (max DKK 5.000.000).
- Carlsberg Foundation Monograph Fellowships: One-year full-time grants for leading, established researchers within the Humanities and Social Sciences with a project aiming at the publication of a pioneering monograph or doctoral dissertation.
- Research Infrastructure: the purchase of equipment, register data, data base and field trips as well as the establishment of corpora and development of research tools.
- Field trips / Research stays: Grants for field trips or research stays at leading international research institutions with a budget exceeding DKK 100,000.

The two postdoc-grants are announced in two annual calls with deadlines 1 April and 1 October. Applications are not supported by the Research Support facilities at AU, since the grants will be hosted by other institutions.*

The following grants can be applied for throughout the year:

- Publications relating to projects supported by the Carlsberg Foundation.
- Grants for arranging conferences (max. DKK 60,000).

- Field trips / Research stays: Grants for field trips or research stays at leading international research institutions with a budget not exceeding DKK 100,000.

The electronic application system is available on the Carlsberg Foundation's homepage. The full call for proposals and guidelines for applicants are available at <http://www.carlsbergfondet.dk/en>

CAS DEADLINES

For all applicants

If you want to apply for a grant hosted by the School of Culture and Society, please send an email to the school's research consultant, Signe Engelbreth Larsen (saelarsen@cas.au.dk) and the relevant research programme director no later than Wednesday 1 September 2021, stating the project title, the grant, that you are applying for, and the relevant research programme.

Budget and research support

Researchers applying for grants from the Carlsberg foundation are referred to the project finance administrators for budget assistance. Please get in touch with Jesper Skovmøller (jesper.skovmoeller@au.dk). The deadline for assistance is Wednesday 1 September.

The research support office will offer to read and comment on the following applications: Young Researcher Fellowships, Monograph Fellowships and applications for Research Infrastructure. Please contact: Helle Østergaard (heoes@au.dk) no later than Wednesday 1 September to plan your feedback process.

All budgets must be approved by the head of School before the applications are submitted. Please forward the final version for the research consultant (saelarsen@cas.au.dk) no later than 27 September.

Internal Review – Reintegration Fellowships & Young Researcher Fellowships

Before final submission applications must be sent to a member of the school's interdisciplinary review panel with a view to improve the project description. Consequently, the research consultant must receive your provisional project description no later than Friday 17 September at 09:00.

Regarding the housing commitment – Reintegration Fellowships

In connection with the preparation of the mandatory housing commitment the research consultant must receive an email no later than Friday 17 September (and preferably before) including the final title of the project, a brief summary description of the project (max. three lines), and a few lines about the research environments at CAS which will be particularly relevant for the project. The information must be sent to saelarsen@cas.au.dk

Projects involving PhD students:

When specific PhD students are involved in major projects, the main applicant must gain the approval of the relevant head of PhD programme as quickly as possible, confirming that it will be possible to register the student concerned as a PhD student if the applicant receives funding. In order to gain this approval, the candidate's CV, exam/degree certificates, documentation for English language qualifications, and a project outline for the part of the project that the PhD student is to carry out must be sent to the relevant head of PhD programme: Magdalena Naum (magdalena.naum@cas.au.dk), Lisanne Wilken (ceklw@cas.au.dk), or Jakob Bek-Thomsen (idejbt@cas.au.dk) senest onsdag den 1. september 2021.

Please note that PhD students recruited through open calls will be able to begin their enrolment at 1 September 2022 at the earliest.
